"How could I not take advantage and continue to support this amazing brand; especially when, if you will allow me:

1- The fragrances are so good! Every-one being a creation so different from the next. Each fragrance you create has a purpose, a reason. Well done and continue to be different from the other houses that's dependency is marketing certain genres i.e. OUD, UAE, Department store collaborations or exclusives.

2 - The customer service is one of the best I have experienced. Well done again."

"When I was in Cyprus in Hilton hotel and the shop there I tried your lovely white puredistance. I could not forget the smell, so decided to order a box to try and then choose which one I would like to order. It is very rare for me to like the perfume so much as I'm very demanding in choosing perfumes for myself. Always order the best! Thanks you for making this amazing perfumes!"

"I got the perfume yesterday, very great protection in the box the gift set didn't get any damaged. This was my first time that I order perfumes from an official website. I am very satisfied in your services such as the packaging was so gorgeous and the greeting card with hand writing which make me felt very appreciated. Thank you again for your kindness services. Compare to my niche collection, Puredistance quality are very outstanding from other brands. I think buying this gift set is very great deal."

"I must tell you that my love for this is growing and growing. It seems to be a perfume oxymoron: soft and delicate - and HOT and SPICY. It may now be my second favorite of your perfumes (I have never wavered in awarding 1st place to Puredistance 1). To think, this is a type of fragrance which I would not even have tried if it were not a Puredistance offering! The exquisite Opardu is more of an aspirational fragrance for me because I can rise to its gay, outgoing, heedlessly romantic profile only occasionally. Thank you, thank you for the wonderful perfume experiences you have made possible."
